

Hilderstone Scarecrow Celebrations 2018

Special Family Service at Christ Church, Hilderstone

Sunday 10th June at 11.15am

I am sure many of you are up to your eyes in straw, string and stuffing, preparing for our fun-packed Scarecrow weekend on 9-10th June. We wish you all the best of luck in the competition and can't wait to see the fabulous array of scarecrows around the village.

As part of the celebration, Christ Church is holding a special Scarecrow Service on the Sunday (10th June), commencing at 11.15am. In our endeavours to be wholly inclusive, scarecrows are also welcome, as well as villagers – indeed they are to be encouraged! We even managed to attract royalty last time, with her Royal Highness Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip looking on from the balcony. Who will be there this year I wonder? So why not come along in your best scarecrow costume and help us celebrate this fun event in real style? The Reverend Marion Reynolds has prepared a special service just for the occasion.

And remember, there is plenty going on in the Village Hall after the service, with refreshments, exhibitions, the results of the Scarecrow competition and a raffle.

We really look forward to seeing you all throughout the festivities and hopefully at our lovely family service on the Sunday.
